Summer Harvest

Clinton Care (bottom photo) with Tuesday's summer harvest all cleaned and ready to go to the Trust cafe. Clinton is a skilled gardener on our farm garden team. It has been super hot lately and we have had a bumper crop of eggplants and plums. Ali Mitchell, Farm

Chief Executive

It is with much sadness to inform you that on the 3rd February Warren Murphy passed away at his home at 300 Brown Street. Warren has been unwell for the past few months and his death was not unexpected however the passing of anyone whether expected or sudden is still a shock. Warren has lived in the Trust for nearly 13 years. During this time he has touched the lives of many people. Warren was farewelled with an informal service held in his home attended by many staff and Life Stylers along with his family. We thank you Warren for having the opportunity to have known you. I would like to thank everyone who has made Warren's time here with us enjoyable and in particular the staff, Dr Hennessy and District Nurses who supported during Warren's final weeks. Our sincere condolences to Warren's family.

Blooming Great

My large pendent heliconia bloomed for first time last year, took 16 past years to bloom. It is 13 feet in height, and were the NZ's only the largest pendent heliconia that can bloom in northern New Zealand. Heliconias and banana plants are my favourites.
